Capzantine welcomes Frédéric Muller in the Investor Relations department

To aid its development, both in France and on an international level, Capzantine - a European independent private investment management company - welcomes Frédéric Muller in the Investor Relations department. He is based in Paris.

Frédéric Muller's arrival is in response to Capzantine's desire to institutionalise its relationship with its growing number of investors, in order to provide them with a designated point of contact on a daily basis to help guide their investment decisions.

Frédéric Muller says of his new post: "My role is to establish and develop a close and valuable relationship with our investors, offering insightful, responsive discussion, and remaining at their disposal at all times to answer any questions they may have."

Frédéric Muller has extensive experience with institutional investors. He began his career in 1997 as a stockbroker in London, before joining the buy side in 2001 as Head of Institutional French Investors, first for Foreign & Colonial, then for Barclays Global Investors. In 2006, he joined Old Mutual Asset Management to develop the group's hedge fund sales to institutional investors in continental Europe.

From 2008, Frédéric Muller was Managing Director, Alternative Products Distribution, Europe at First Avenue Partners LLP in London, where he was principally in charge of relations with institutional investors from Scandinavia and France.

Frédéric Muller is an alumnus of Comillas Pontifical University (Madrid) and of ESC Reims.

About Capzantine

Founded in 2004, Capzantine is a European independent private investment management fund. Capzantine supports businesses in their quest for growth, providing financial and industrial expertise to help them achieve success in their development and transfer phases. Capzantine delivers flexible long-term financing solutions to SMEs and mid-cap companies. Depending on the circumstances, Capzantine invests as a majority or minority shareholder and/or as a private debt provider (mezzanine, unitranche, senior debt), in unlisted small and mid-cap companies with an enterprise value of 30 million to 400 million euros. Although broad-based, Capzantine more particularly supports strong value-creating companies in the healthcare, technology, food and services sectors. Based in Paris and run by its partners, Capzantine currently has €2.5 billion in assets under management. Its most recent investments include FitnessPark, Acteon, MCA and Tessi.
