

Paris, 18 April 2016

Capzantine is joined by two Investment Principals

Olivier Guine, aged 31, and Oriane Mizrahi, aged 30, join the Capzantine fund as Investment Principals.

Olivier Guine has a Master 225 in Corporate Finance and Financial Engineering from Université Paris Dauphine and began his career at Pechel Industries. He joined the Bpifrance Investissement teams in 2009, first as an Investment Manager and then as an Investment Principal, before moving to Capzantine in March 2016.

Oriane Mizrahi graduated from EDHEC Business School, specialising in Corporate Finance, and has eight years' experience in investment banking. After first working in the structured financing department of BNP Paribas, she was recruited by Rothschild & CIE as a VP in 2009. In April 2016, she joined Capzantine as an Investment Principal.

The arrival of Olivier and Oriane increases Capzantine's capacity to deliver across its business (arrangement of sponsorless and private debt transactions). The Fund is now underpinned by a team of 13 investors.

About Capzantine

Founded in 2004, Capzantine is an independent investment fund and a pioneer in combined equity and private debt investments. It supports businesses in their quest for growth, providing financial and industrial expertise to help them successfully achieve their development and transfer phases. Depending on the circumstances, Capzantine invests as a majority or minority shareholder and/or as private debt provider in small and mid-cap companies with an enterprise value of 20 million to 400 million euros. Based in Paris and run by its partners, Capzantine currently has € 1.1 billion in assets under management. Its portfolio includes companies such as Orsys, Acteon, Talan, Finance Active, Francheville, Cap Vert, Cérélia, Opteven ...

For further information, consult: www.capzantine.com