

PRESS RELEASE

For its second transaction in Spain,
Capzanine supports L Catterton and the management team in the acquisition of Goiko
Grill, one of Spain's leading burger restaurant chains

Paris, 2 July 2018

For its second transaction in Spain via its Capzanine 4 Private Debt fund, Capzanine<sup>1</sup> supports L Catterton and Goiko Grill's management team in the company's LBO. Capzanine is participating in the transaction by providing a unitranche loan facility.

Founded in 2013 by Andoni Goicoechea, Goiko Grill is the leading gourmet-burger restaurant chain in Spain. Goiko Grill serves its customers with premium burgers, at affordable prices made with local ingredients and served in a warm atmosphere.

In just five years, Goiko Grill has grown rapidly and now operates some 44 restaurants in 8 Spanish cities, being one of the country's leading chains. Goiko Grill is based in Madrid and currently employs more than 500 people.

Jean-Marc Fiamma, Partner at Capzanine, and José Tomás Moliner, Spain's Country Head at Capzanine, said: "Goiko Grill is a great success story in Spain, operating in an attractive segment. We are delighted to be supporting L Catterton and the management team in their acquisition of the company and their growth plans."
